Note: Please keep in mind that these are just suggestions and you can customize the itinerary as per your preferences and time constraints.

Itinerary

Day 01: Visit Namobuddha stupa

Start the day early and head towards Namobuddha Stupa, which is located about 40 km east of Kathmandu.

Namobuddha Stupa is one of the holiest Buddhist pilgrimage sites in Nepal and is believed to be the place where Lord Buddha sacrificed himself to a hungry tigress and her cubs.

Spend the morning exploring the stupa and its surroundings, and taking in the peaceful atmosphere of the area.

You can also visit the Thrangu Tashi Yangtse Monastery, which is located nearby and is home to hundreds of monks.

After lunch, you can visit other nearby attractions such as the Dapcha Kashitar Village, where you can observe traditional Nepali village life, and the Panauti Temple, which is a beautiful example of Newari architecture.

Return to Kathmandu in the evening.

Day 02: Visit Swayambhunath and Boudhanath Stupa

Start the day by visiting Swayambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, which is located on a hilltop overlooking Kathmandu valley.

The stupa is one of the most sacred Buddhist pilgrimage sites in Nepal and is believed to have been built more than 2,000 years ago.

Spend the morning exploring the stupa and its surroundings, and taking in the stunning views of the city below.

After lunch, head towards Bouddhanath Stupa, which is located about 5 km east of Swayambhunath.

Bouddhanath Stupa is one of the largest stupas in the world and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Spend the afternoon exploring the stupa and its surroundings, and learning more about the rich history and culture of Buddhism in Nepal.

You can also visit nearby attractions such as the Shechen Monastery, which is home to a large community of monks and nuns.

Return to your hotel in the evening.
